

Saturday, November 19, 2016

10:15 a.m. Opening Circle.

10:35–11:15 a.m. Activity creating a visual representation of the crucial issues of the day, past and present, on our Issue Timeline Wall.

11:30 a.m.–12:30 p.m. Share stories of how your Encampment experience has been and continues to be a force for positive change in your life, work and community(ies).

12:30–1:30 p.m. Lunch provided. Cost is $10/Youth free.

1:30–2:15 p.m. Recent Encampers present current needs and ideas of what would help them translate their EFC experience into action. This will include report on our new Youth Board.

2:15–2:30 p.m. Overview of where EFC is today and the current vision going forward presented by Margot Gibney and Jane Sapp.

2:30–3:30 p.m. How would you like to see the EFC move forward? How it can broaden its impact and be more visible as a force for social justice? How you can be a part of moving EFC forward and expanding its scope and impact.

3:30–5:00 p.m. Break

5:00–6:15 p.m. Reception honoring Algernon D. Black and Alice K. (Nanny) Pollitzer. Stories of EFC's origins and founders from David, Jonathan and Elliott Black. (Ceremonial Hall)

6:15–7:15 p.m. Buffet Dinner

7:15–9:00 p.m. Evening Program includes welcome by co-hosts Anne Klaeyesen and Gale Brewer; tribute to EFC founders Al Black and Nanny Pollitzer; EFC alums and staff from early years to 2016 address EFC's role in a vital democracy and share their stories of the EFC's impact today and throughout the years. Speakers include Ada Deer, Miles Rapoport, Aurelia Brazeal, Peter Neufeld, Jason Warwin, Steve Davis and 2016 Encampers with David Rothenberg as emcee. Executive director Margot Gibney and education director Jane Sapp will present EFC's current status and future vision and acknowledgments. A silent auction will round out the evening.

* We are proud to announce the first in-person meeting of the National Advisory Board is occurring today. For more information contact efcyouthprogram@gmail.com.